Directions: Be sure to say what type of literary device is being used (what type of figurative language meaning metaphor, simile, hyperbole, allusion, etc.) And then state what the author means by it.

1. The air was deadly cold and the wind was like a flat blade of ice on his cheeks.
   a. Device___________________________
   b. Meaning______________________________________ c.

2. But this dame was like a jack-in-the-box.
   a. Device____________________________
   b. Meaning____________________________

3. It isn’t very often I have the pleasure of taking a visitor into my little nest.
   a. Device____________________________
   b. Meaning____________________________

4. His landlady was sailing into the room with a large silver tea tray and holding it as if the tray were a pair of reins on a frisky horse.
   a. Device____________________________
   b. Meaning____________________________

5. He could feel her eyes resting on his face.
   a. Device____________________________
   b. Meaning____________________________

6. His skin was just like a baby’s.
   a. Device____________________________
   b. Meaning____________________________